FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

In a letter to the court dated June 3, 2011, Plaintiff Linda May King, appearing pro se, states that she no longer wants to prosecute this social security appeal. The court treats the letter as a motion to dismiss the case without prejudice. Defendant does not oppose the motion. Accordingly, the magistrate judge recommends that this action be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(2).

A copy of this report and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of this report and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's report and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).

DATED: June 14, 2011.
